

BLACKFOX

Premier Training & Certification

Company Overview

Blackfox Training Institute is the leading provider of Quality Workmanship Standards Certification, Quality Training Systems, Skill-Based Training and Custom Courses to the industry's leading edge companies and organizations. In addition, Blackfox is one of the few Approved IPC Training Centers Worldwide providing all five IPC Certification Programs.

Blackfox was founded in 1996 by a group of manufacturing professionals to provide the technical training the Manufacturing Industry required. We partner with you to provide knowledge to your team, improve your direct labor workforce's skills, reduce your "Cost of Quality" (COQ) and improve the overall quality of your products and services. Blackfox is headquartered in Colorado, with training facilities in Tempe, AZ, and satellite offices strategically located throughout the USA, Mexico, Australia, and SE Asia.

Blackfox Instructors are experienced and knowledgeable. They are well versed in process improvement methods that focus on ensuring their client's a positive effect to their bottom-line. By implementing their methods of transferring knowledge to the client's workforce, Blackfox instructors ensure the client of an improved ROI on their training investment.

SBA Small Business

Blackfox Training Institute is an experienced and quality source for government contracting officers and purchasing agents to meet statutory obligations requiring services procurements from small business. We often seek partnering arrangements with other small businesses and prime contractors in the workmanship training, certification, training systems, and workforce development businesses to enhance and complement our services.
